

... National ... Indigenous Peoples Day

Friday, June 21

A day for all Canadians to celebrate the contributions the Original people have made to this land. This day has been notably celebrated by Canada since 1996.

Indigenous people in our region are not from a single location or territory. They are a larger community that includes members from the First Nations, Métis and Inuit heritage. #NIPDWaterlooRegion #NIPDCanada